

Annual Picnic – June 20

Our youngest member, Emma and her dad, Warren Siskoff

Our cook, Bill Blank, on break talks with Craig and Donita Pokwinski.

Summer Foray – July 12

Beer and Small Fungi: Dave Fischer in front of Martin Sendera, Robert Kaplan in front of Judy Kaplan who is talking with Nancy Mladenoff

Photo Foray – August 23

Not much for fungi, but Pam's tomatos were good.
Bob Kaplan and Chuck Soden.

LaCrosse Foray – September 6

Tom Volk standing in front of one of the original 11 chestnuts and speaking to the forayers

Mauthe Lake Foray – September 13

A wet green day. Judy Kaplan photographing fresh Gymnopilus spectabilis

Sandy Knoll County Park – September 14

Though the windshield, four forayers wait for the rain to slow. John Fetzer, Steve Nelsen, Peter Vachuska and David Fisher

Bristol Woods County Park – September 20

Golden Laetiporus sulphureus

Two forayers (Bob .. and a friend) exam specimens.

Walking Iron County Park – September 21

As most of the forayers socialized, a few die-hards were hard at work figuring out what was collected. (left to right) John Steinke, David Fisher, Steve Nelsen and Adrienne Nelsen.

Greenbush Recreational Area – September 29

Mary Jo Jansen displays the Laetiporus she just got by trading for home-made brie with Judy Kaplan (not shown). Steve Shapson provided the brie and elderberry jam on crackers with wines as our forayers had a very good time on a cold drizzly fall day. left to right: Mary Jo, Bob Kaplan, Martin Sendera, Steve, Chuck Soden, Jerzy Zurko taking the photograph.

Point Beach State Forest – October 4

Blewit Admiration: Martin Sendera, Tanya Weber and Bill Blank admire the Lepista nuda brought in by John Steinke.
